ACCOMMODATION

The resort is made up of 87 contemporary suites - all with ocean views. Some suites work best for couples; others are for families, with a relaxed contemporary design retained throughout. The architecture is in the Caribbean vernacular with plantation shutters painted a cool grey against which the palms, lawns and forest appear all the more green. By day, every room is filled with sunshine from sea-facing, floor-to-ceiling windows opening onto private terraces with large daybeds. Many rooms lead directly onto the beach, whilst others have lawn and far-reaching ocean views.

ACTIVITIES

Strike a healthy balance between soaking up the Caribbean sun and trying out all that Carlisle Bay has to offer - non-motorised water sports including kayaking and sailing, paddle boarding, mountain biking and yoga and Pilates mean you can be as active as you like during a stay at Carlisle Bay.

Carlisle Bay is particularly great for tennis breaks with nine courts and a resident pro who will get your game into shape in no time.

The Caribbean is known as a destination with plenty of things to do and Antigua is no exception - from the nearby rainforest zip wire to reef diving out in the bay. Golf in the Caribbean is a popular pastime and Antigua has two courses - Jolly Harbour and Cedar Valley - both within easy reach of the hotel. Not to mention

WEDDINGS & HONEYMOONS

Consider Carlisle Bay for the ultimate beach wedding. Whether you're planning an intimate island wedding for two or a large celebration with family and friends, you'll be spoilt for choice at Carlisle Bay - from exchanging vows on the jetty to a glamorous poolside party or a beach wedding banquet under the stars.

The hotel's wedding planners are on hand to take care of everything to ensure that each wedding on the beach is perfectly individual - right down to the last detail. The experienced team can arrange flowers, photographers, live music... even fireworks on the beach.

Alternatively, plan your honeymoon at Carlisle Bay with one of the hotel's romantic celebration packages. From dinner for two on the candlelit jetty to Champagne sunset cruises, the welcoming staff at this luxury beachfront hotel know how to give your Caribbean celebration a touch of magic.

BLUE SPA

The hotel's exceptional Blue Spa is a 17,000 square foot sanctuary. The six treatment rooms, including a designated couple's treatment room, saunas and plunge pools offer blissful relaxation.

Partnered with Voya, the full range of treatments and spa packages on offer is extensive and ranges from classic facials to indulgent rituals with individual treatments tailored to men, women and teenagers.

To further unwind, there is a yoga and Pilates pavilion set within the tropical gardens.

MEETINGS & EVENTS

For a brainstorming retreat or strategy planning session, Carlisle Bay provides an inspiring setting for Caribbean meetings. Incentive travel groups are welcome and the hotel can create itineraries with the perfect balance of chilling out and fun activities, as well as catering for exclusive use bookings during low seasons.

The meeting facilities are outstanding with a private room for up to 40, up-to-date technology and a multimedia Screening Room. The Screening Room, seats up to 45 and is ideal for theatre style meetings, presentations and private screenings. The room offers DVD film projection and Dolby Digital Surround sound for the ultimate film experience.

With some of the best food in the Caribbean and a fabulous choice of diverse dining areas, Carlisle Bay is a brilliant place to entertain. Menus vary from working lunches and delicious picnics on hidden beaches, to cocktails and canapés by the pool and fun barbeques on the beach.

FAMILIES

Take your next Caribbean family vacation at Carlisle Bay. With family-friendly suites, toy boxes on the beach, daily films in the cinema and complimentary kids' high tea; it is one of the best Caribbean family resorts.

The luxury hotel's Beach Suites make perfect family hotel rooms as their terraces are open onto the sand and they have a separate twin bedroom. Connecting rooms are available for families with teenage children.

The highly acclaimed Cool Kids Club is a purpose-built facility for children from six months to late teens. Programmes are individually tailored to each age group - from finger painting and puppets for infants in the crèche, to face painting and mini Olympics for older children.

As well as fun for little ones, Crew Blue offer pre-teens and teenagers a great range of activities during school holidays.

FOOD & DRINK

Carlisle Bay has four of the best restaurants in the Caribbean - Indigo on the Beach, East, Ottimo! and The Jetty Grill. Between them they offer a wide variety of dining options for holidaymakers and local foodies.

INDIGO ON THE BEACH

Set on the shore, Indigo on the Beach is open all day and offers a Caribbean influenced menu featuring grills, seafood and salads. Beach barbeques are served once a week and are a fun night of live music and a fabulous food.

EAST

East is a striking restaurant with intricately carved wooden doors - a beautiful spot for dinner. The pan-Asian menu is unique amongst restaurants in Antigua and focuses on the cuisines from Indonesia, Japan and Thailand.

OTTIMO!

Ottimo! is a poolside retreat for lazy Italian lunches. Authentic antipasti, pizzas from the wood-burning oven and home-made gelato taste great in the sunshine.

THE JETTY GRILL

The Jetty Grill is an adults-only restaurant located adjacent to the beach. Grilled meats and fresh seafood are daily favourites at this casual venue overlooking the resort's Jetty and Caribbean Sea.

It's not just the restaurants though... there are three fabulous bars for sundowners on the beach or rum cocktails by the pool, daily afternoon tea and many private dining options from candlelit dinner for two on the jetty to parties in Coconut Grove.
